

desire of all the startling coalescence

december 11 - of contraries

Context:

Line by Line: Matthew 2:2-6

Application:

december 11 - the startling coalescence of contraries

If you haven't already, why not start your search for Jesus as the wise men did this Christmas. Jesus promises we can find fulfillment of those long held desires for meaning and peace

Next steps in your journey:

1. Tell Jesus "I want to find you. Please show Yourself to me this Christmas."
2. Go to the Information Center and ask for one of those silver "new believer packets." The information they contain will help you begin your search.
3. If you'd like prayer from our pastors for your journey this season, write "prayer" on your Communication Card.

Next week:

We will be finding Jesus with the wise men. It's the perfect opportunity to:

- get ready for Christmas.
- see the true meaning of Christ's birth by clearing out some margin in this busy season.
- invite friends and family.

Also remember the Candlelight Celebration on Christmas Eve, take some tickets, bring your family to start your Christmas celebration, and invite others to Eastridge's "living room" for one of the most heartwarming and encouraging services of the year.

Who might you invite to join us on the journey?
